

PRESS RELEASE

Athens, 10th March 2023

PRODEA Investments supports culture - Sponsor of the Greek National Opera's masterpiece opera Werther.

PRODEA Investments, Greece's largest real estate investment company, supports culture by sponsoring an international artistic event. This is the iconic opera Werther by the renowned French composer Jules Massenet, a Greek National Opera production, officially premiering on March 23, 2023, for six performances only at the SNFCC's Stavros Niarchos Hall.

The highly-anticipated performance Werther is a masterwork opera of the French repertory based on Goethe's story of the same name. It becomes a point of reference in the world of lyric theater with the outstanding mezzo-soprano of our day, Anita Rachvelishvili, and the renowned Italian tenor Francesco Demuro in the leading roles, as well as the GNO orchestra conducted by the famous Canadian conductor Jacques Lacombe. It also has symbolic value because it is the final opera directed by Spyros Evangelatos and was originally produced by the Greek National Opera at the Olympia Theater in 2014.

With excellence as identity - Towards culture

PRODEA Investments, in the framework of the Corporate Responsibility program "Structures of Responsibility," supports events that promote the Arts, collaborating with one of the most important "structures" of culture in Greece. The excellence represented by the Greek National Opera is completely consistent with the values and the ongoing innovative path that PRODEA is charting, investing in high-quality buildings with sustainability criteria.

You can watch the trailer of the show here.